BUSINESS MEN TO DINE WITH LADY MACCABEES TUESDAY

The Moving Finger

"The Moving Finger writes,
And having writ, moves on."
—Omar.

Decoto, Calif., Oct. 25, 1924.

Dear Mr. Moving Finger:

Neither have I
Got Married,
Robbed a Bank,
Committed Suicide,
Been Arrested,
or GOT RICH,
BUT—

I want to tell you your paper is EASY TO READ, and that is half the battle. It's a clear black and white, and just seems to call out—"Come on and read me, the reading's fine!"

(Now don't ask me—"Then why don't you dig up $2 and get your name on our mailing list?" because why should I when we get it at the office anyway, and I can buy $2.00 worth of gladiola bulbs instead?)

AND—

I am busy planting my garden with spring bulbs and lilacs, so as to brighten my little end of the world. Tell the rest of Washington Township to get busy and make this one of the beauty spots of California.

Five cheers for your ENTHUSIASM. A. RUTSCH.

Now that's the kind of a letter that makes a fellow feel like "coming back." We have others here, many of them, "SAVED UP," but this one is different. You know it is easy to FEEL an appreciation of another's efforts, but when it comes to taking the trouble to put it in black and white and placing it in an envelope with a postage stamp on the upper right hand corner and turning it over to our Uncle Samuel for delivery—well, appreciation is FELT when one does that. This is just what has been done by an entire stranger to us in this instance. We are STRANGERS NO MORE. Just send or BRING us a bunch of lilacs some day, Mr. (or Mrs. or MISS) Rutsch. We love flowers. And man you others in Washington Township get busy with your bulbs and garden. It is one of the things that makee life worth while.

BUT—don't all make that an excuse for not getting on the mailing list of this family newspaper; if you should do so, there would be no such newspaper. See the point?

How different is the spirit above shown from that of the politician. Oh! but we are tired of politics. You know politics reminds me of a cigarette. When a fellow smokes a cigarette in a close room where there are those of us who refrain from the filthy habit, you know what an awful "stink" there is? Well, that is a little like politics. We have tried to keep the odor out of The Township Register. For this issue we sold three columns of space to the Coolidge-Dawes committee and lesser spaces to others. You may not notice it, but between the lines of the best of them there is an awful smell oozing out. Drop down to the Congressional candidates and you will see that they are virtually at each other's throats calling each other liars and MAYBE thieves. Sometimes makes one feel that every man is a liar and every woman fears the truth.

YES, we feel JUST A LITTLE crabby today. We have been working night and day of late, and today for the first time in a week we sat down in the swivel chair and tried to find the desk. It was literally snowed under with unopened MAIL. We are confronted with assertions that the State will go to hell if you vote for amendment De Bunk and that the

RADIO BRINGS STORY OF SECOND ARCTIC BEAR CAUGHT BY CENTERVILLE MAN IN NORTH

SAVAGE ANIMAL DIDN'T WAIT TO BE ATTACKED BUT MADE QUICK WAR ON FRAIL CANOE

Sidney Snow of Centerville is expected home within a few days, and he is bringing, not one polar bear, but two, for the Oakland museum. How he captured the largest of the Arctic bears at the risk of the lives of the crew of the ship Herman, is told in a message received over the radio by Mrs. Snow Tuesday morning.

The large bear was sighted a mile from the Herman on an ice pack near Herald island. Snow started after him in a double kayak, a native rowing, and Snow carrying the camera to picture the capture. But when the two drew near they found him so savage and of such giant proportions, that he would not wait to be attacked, but dived into the water and swam straight for the frail canoe.

NATIVES FIND DISCRETION BETTER PART OF VALOR.

Undaunted, Snow started for the bear, determined to fight it out, but the native who was doing the rowing found discretion the better part of valor and rowed into the shadow of the Herman, whose crew had also seen the danger to Snow and had guided the ship between the canoe and the bear. Seeing himself cut off from his prey, the bear calmly landed and awaited the approach of the Herman, growling savagely at it and never moving except to pace up and down on the ice floe, as though eager for the fight that he scented.

FEROCIOUS OLD BRUIN WEIGHED A TON

When the ship drew near the ice pack, bruin dived in and swam straight for the Herman. Snow had landed upon the Herman safely. The crew was disturbed at the size and ferocity of the bear. The animal weighed over a ton, it was estimated.

TOOK ALL HANDS TO DRAW BRUIN TO DECK-LEVEL

As the bear reared to growl defiance at the party, Snow lassoed him with a strand of the heaviest wire that the ship held, the only substance heavy enough to restrain him. The noose landed over the bear's shoulders, slipped to his middle and Snow drew it tight. A rope was also thrown over the bear's neck but with his strength he tore it to piecces. After a struggle a rope carrier, with which cargoes are hauled aboard, was forced over the struggling captive, and a derrick requiring all the crew was put into action drawing him up to the level of the deck.

PANIC PUTS BEAR BACK IN THE WATER!

Three of the crew, working the windlass, relaxed their hold on the derrick in a panic and the bear tumbled back in the water. Another start was made, and this time he was slowly but surely drawn. He was placed in the steel cage that it had taken Snow and the crew a week to build and at last accounts was becoming used to his captivity.

Accounts of the capture of the second bear were given also. Captain Lewis Lane of the Herman, who has traveled the Arctic seas for many years, says the Oakland bear is the largest he ever expected to see. He pronounces it the finest specimen of its kind ever captured.

FESTIVAL OPENS NEXT THURSDAY, CONNOR'S HALL

The bazaar for the benefit of the Corpus Christi Church will be held in Connor's Hall, Niles, November 6, 7 and 8.

During the past four weeks parishoners and friends of the parish have been working with whole hearted enthusiasm and tireless zeal and the affair gives every promise of being a splendid success.

Among the noteworthy features there will be a country store with a wide variety of useful household articles; a fish pond; a fancy booth, well stocked with fancy articles, all quite appropriate for Christmas gifts this year. The promotion committee assures everyone that attends a good time.

Watch for "Daffyland."

DAVID STARR JORDAN TO SPEAK ON "THE WAY OUT OF WAR"

The members and friends of the Country Club of Washington Township are reminded of the next meeting, Tuesday, Nov. 4th.

Dr. David Starr Jordan will talk on "The Way Out of War" followed by the usual musical program.

Hostesses for the afternoon will be Mesdames Van Vleet, J. E. Thane and T. Trask.

A large attendance is anticipated for this meeting.

TOYON BRANCH PARTY NETS NEAT SUM

The party given at the home of Mrs. J. E. Thane last Thursday for the benefit of the Toyon Branch of the Baby Hospital was well attended and netted about $30 for the good of the cause. Prizes were won by Mrs. Charles Jeleff of Centerville, Mrs. Ezra Decoto of Oakland, and Miss Anita Gellegos of Mission San Jose.

Watch for "Daffyland."

ALAMEDA ELKS WILL ENTERTAIN AT LIVERMORE

The Alameda lodge of Elks will stage an evening of entertainment at Livermore on November 13, as a compliment to the Livermore members of the lodge. The affair will be for Elks and families, and especially invited guests. It will consist of miscellaneous numbers and will be put on by the entertainment committe under the chairmanship of R. J. Hanjes. It will be presented in a new Livermore hall with a seating capacity of 650 and this number of tickets will be distributed among the Livermore Elks to be given to relatives and friends.

BUSINESS MEN'S LUNCHEON ASKS JUDGE RICHMOND A FEW QUESIONS UPON HIS RETURN

JUDGE WAS GONE A WEEK, BUT YOU'D THINK HE'D BEEN GONE LOTS LONGER FROM THE QUESTIONS THEY ASKED

After an absence of one week and one square meal, Judge Richmond presented himself last Tuesday as a regular attendant at the Chamber of Commerce luncheon. The judge was asked some very embarrassing questions about his visit in the Southland, especially in Hollywood, and worst of all, he was finally called upon for a speech.

He made it.

In his speech the judge admitted that he visited the Mack Sennet Studios in Hollywood, and saw the bathing girls an' everything. "They are sure some beauts," explained His Honor.

The judge said he saw several of the ex-Nilesites who had not forgotten the little old town with a one-sided street.

Funniest part of it all is that on the down trip, the judge left here on Tuesday and reached Los Angeles on Tuesday, but it took a day longer to return. Asked if he stopped at the corner drug store in San Luis Obispo, the judge—well, we're not going to tell it all this time.

LADY MACCABEES CAPTURE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE FOR THEIR LUNCHEON

The Chamber of Commerce is to eat with the ladies.

That is, by unanimous vote the Business Men's Club of the Chamber of Commerce at regular banquet seated, decided last Tuesday to dine with the Lady Maccabees at their election luncheon next Tuesday noon in the Odd Fellows hall.

COMMITTEE APPOINTED TO RAISE LOCAL QUOTA FOR BOY SCOUTS

The time at Tuesday's regular weekly luncheon of the Chamber of Commerce was nearly altogether given over to a discussion of the Boy Scouts—or rather, to the present drive for funds, and accomplishments of the past year.

A committee was appointed by President Drew to secure the Niles quota in the present drive. The committee is composed of E. A. Ellsworth, Ed. Rose, Ben Murphy, E. W. McPherson and H. L. Scott.

Manager Peterson of the Niles Theater announced that he would entertain the boys semi-annually at his theater, providing special reels for the purpose.

The Parent-Teacher Association of the Centerville Grammar School will hold its first evening meeting in the school auditorium, Wednesday, the 5th, at eight o'clock. There will be a short business meeting, an address by Dr. Muller of the Agnew State Hospital on a subject related to our childhood, and a musical program. Refreshments will follow. A nursery for the children will be provided. It is hoped that all who can will come. Mothers, fathers and everyone interested in children, especially the children of our own locality, are especially invited.

DAVIE REITERATES HIS "UNANSWERED QUESTIONS" IN MANY MEETINGS

Touching every city and town in the outlying districts of Alameda County, Mayor Davie today addressed more than 24 separate meetings. Throughout the county tour Davie reiterated his "unanswered questions," of his opponent's, saying in part:

"My opponent has yet to tell the public why he changed from a Democrat in Tulare County to a Republican in Alameda County. The Republican voters of this district would like to know what confidence they can place in a man who can conveniently change his party affiliations to meet political purposes. The Democrats would also like to know why a former member of their party can now claim that his best right to Congress is his desertion of one party for the 'pirating of another.'

"Though I appear as an Independent on the ballot, I have been a registered Republican for many years, I was nominated by popular petition after the primary and the word Independent after my name on the ballot does not mean that I am less qualified to ask for the Republican support than my opponent.

"My opponent seeks a chair in our Congress while his failure at the head of one little department of the city government stands out as a monumental tribute to his inefficien-

Civil Service records show that ...ter had draftsmen employed ...artment under the heading ...rivers. This was to enable ...raftsmen to draw the pay of a ...ile driver. Many of the payrolls prepared under Carter's administration have not been approved by the foremen or others in charge of subordinate employees. Apparently each man kept his own time. This was criticised in the public record of Haskins and Sells report on Carter's department.

"More than $275,000.00 is now outstanding for dockage and tolls due the city from big corporations from whom Carter has failed to collect. Three years ago my opponent's only public position was attorney for the State Pharmacy Board, a position he secured through the influence of Mr. M. J. Kelly. In the recent campaign he denounces this same Mr. Kelly and says that the hands which gave him a political job are dirty hands. After three years as city commissioner my opponent now finds himself a director of a big banking corporation in which he has deposited city funds. With. Mr. Carter denouncing both Mr. M. J. Kelly and myself, who campaigned to elect him city commissioner, he has treated his friends in public life the same as he has treated political parties. He is here today and there tomorrow.

CARTER ALSO WANTS TO GO TO CONGRESS

ALBERT E. CARTER COMES WITH A MESSAGE

Albert E. Carter for Congress says to the farmer:

"Fellow Citizens:

"The old cry 'relief for the farmers' is again abroad in the land.

"It is raised, as it always has been, to confuse the American voter.

"Let's consider the truth in the matter.

The Protective Tariff

"Without a protective tariff of 8c a dozen on eggs, $4.00 a ton on hay, what would become of those industries, and so on down the line, without the protective tariff on all of California fruits, canned and dried, tariff on wool, beef, sugar, rice, almonds, walnuts and etc.

"Why, in a few years our agricultural industries would be completely wiped out.

"During the great war the farmer was urged to increase his production and multiply his efforts on the theory, well founded, "food will win the war." He responded in a manner which makes one of the brightest pages in American history. At the close of the war, the farmer was the first to feel the depression, and still is suffering. Such a condition is alarming to the farmer.

"IT SHOULD BE EVEN MORE SO TO THE REST OF THE COUNTRY, WHICH IS DEPENDENT UPON HIM FOR ITS DAILY BREAD.

"You business men, bankers and wage earners, all of your prosperity depends on the prosperity of the farmer. You voters of America are to decide this question. The future prosperity of this Country.

"As you all know, both farm legislation and the tariff bill and all other bills must receive a majority vote of the members in both Congress and the Senate, before the President ever has the opportunity of signing the bill, making it a law.

"As a candidate for Congress, I wish to state that all the farm industries will receive my attention, and it shall be my aim to place them on a firm and sound financial basis —realizing that we all depend on the farmers' prosperity for our foodstuffs.

ALBERT E. CARTER

"Born and raised on a farm in Tulare county, California.

"ALBERT E. CARTER,
"Rep. Candidate for Congress.

WANTED TO BE FAIR

Two golfers sliced their drives into the rough and went in search of their balls. They searched for a long time without success.

A woman watched them with sympathetic eyes.

At last after the search had proceeded half an hour, she beckoned to them and said sweetly: "I hope I'm not interrupting gentlemen, but would it be cheating if I told you where they were?"

WORRIED BY MRS. GRUNDY

A woman who frequently went out to spend the day with friends had been accompanied by her six-year old son. One evening on returning home very much bored with the day's experiences, the boy remarked: "Mother, if you don't stop taking me around with you so much people will think you have married a dwarf."

His record is one of fidelity to American institutions.

He is opposed by the forces of Socialism and Sovietism.

Remember the proposed curtailment of the powers of the Supreme Court sponsored by his opponent would leave us without a Constitution.

Coolidge is an exponent of the Republican idea of protective tariff.

Without a protective tariff most of California's great agricultural industries would not exist.

Coolidge's opponent has voted item for item against the egg, cherry, rice, wool, hay, almond, walnut, citrus fruit, olives and other schedules.

CIVILIZATION DOOMED, BUT "MILLIONS NOW LIVING WILL NEVER DIE," IS MESSAGE

Startling Facts Promised In Free Lecture Here Sunday

L. H. LAWRENCE

In a free lecture to be given at I. O. O. F. Hall in Niles, Sunday evening, November 2nd, L. H. Florence will tell the people why the greatest crisis of the ages is upon the world; why all nations are mustering their forces for the greatest conflict of all times, as foretold by the Prophets of God, and how that great trouble will be cut short by the Lord, and why millions now living will never die.

Mr. Florence says: "After centuries of laborious effort to better conditions, man's civilization is now nearing complete collapse. Selfishness has gone to seed and the harvest of destruction has begun. All the nations are in distress and perplexity.

"War has bankrupted Europe and demoralized America, yet the nations go fearlessly on preparing for more war. Modern science and eduaction have made war more diabolical and fiendish than in the days of barbarism. The modern clergy have abandoned God, the Bible, and the Prince of Peace.

"Corruption and official lawlessness are brazenly manifested in all nations. Profiteers, conscienceless politicians and unfaithful clergy are in an alliance to rule the world by an unholy and vicious League of Nations. The people are fleeced, robbed and oppressed. Millions are out of employment. They have lost confidence in their leaders and are rapidly turning to Bolshevism, radicalism and anarchy.

"Disaster stalks abroad and all the nations are rushing madly to the greatest time of trouble the world has ever known.

"Hope for the people lies in the kingdom of God now at hand. Millions are now living who will see that kingdom in operation and if obedient to its righteous laws will never die, but will live on earth in happiness, peace and prosperity. The world's darkest hour is just before its greatest blessing."

Great throngs have heard this heart-cheering message during the past few months in Europe and America. Three times Royal Albert Hall, London, the greatest hall in Europe, was packed and thousands turned away. At Magdeburg, Germany, 17,000 came. At Tacoma, Washington, 25,000; at Los Angeles, 35,000.

KLAMATH MORE VALUABLE THAN REFORM SCHOOLS

By Eph. L. Musick

When you go into your booth on next Tuesday, are you to cast a ballot in favor of Amendment No. 11 and thus show that you think that outdoor life is a vital necessity in the development of human life, or are you in mind to give away forever one of the greatest playground sites in America in order that it may be exploited for private gain? Should the amendment carry, the Klamath river will be set aside as a fish preserve. Should the amendment fail, the abundant hydro-electric energy will be placed at the mercy of private monopolies, and the greatest source for salmon spawn on the Pacific coast will be endangered to such an extent that trout fishing will be a thing of the past in the next generation.

For more than thirty years the California Fish Commission has depended upon the Klamath as a source of spawn for the propagation of the game fish that have been used to stock the streams along the coast and in the Sierras. No other stream in California is just like the Klamath. It breaks through both the Cascades and the Coast Ranges. Its long course, free of abrupt falls, makes it an ideal stream for natural salmon and trout spawning, inasmuch as its latter course lies east of the coast mountains. Fortunately, however, the Klamath is rich in stored-up hydro-electric power, and that fact is recognized by scheming monopolists who are asking for the privilege of placing dams along the course of the stream. To get local support from the people living in the counties through which the Klamath flows, all sorts of bait are being extended.

We are told by the people opposed to the amendment that the development of the Klamath for power is absolutely necessary at this time. Such statements are pure fabrications. I am as well acquainted with the Klamath river as most people who will read this article are with the Niles Canyon. The mouth of the river is in my home county. Any one of the three branches of Smith river in Del Norte county will supply all the people in that county for years to come with electricity. There are now three thousand people in the county. Trinity river, a branch of the Klamath and a stream that the fish commission is making no effort to conserve, will develop 250,000 horse power, enough to supply all of Humboldt until the grandchildren of present Humboldt residents pass away.

It has been stated that the Pacific Gas and Electric projects on Pitt river, when finished, will supply all northern California with all electric current necessary for the next thirty years. I visited those projects two months ago, and I am of the opinion that the statement is no idle boast.

Whether you believe in government ownership or not, why tie up for a hundred years California's greatest fishing stream and cast it into private hands, and thus deny the next generation the right to decide for itself whether it wants such ownership or not? One dam on the Kalmath will be sufficient to destroy the stream for fishing.

This article is the view of one who loves outdoor life—one who knows that the Klamath is the greatest fishing stream on the coast. The Klamath river is more valuable as a fishing stream for giving our boys new life than all the reform scohols in the West.

"THE OTHER SIDE" TAKES FLING AT THE SUBJECT

By the Eureka C. of C.

"Power development and fish protection on the Klamath River go hand in hand," according to Col. W. Kelly, chief engineer of the Federal Power Commission.

"In my opinion," he said, "the prohibiting of power development on the Klamath is unnecessary for protection of fish. I am convinced that there will be practically no difficulty in preserving both the industrial and sport fishnig on this river after construction of the high dam proposed."

Col. Kelly's statement referred to Initiative Measure No. 11 on the California ballot. This measure is proposed by the State Fish and Game Commission for the ostensible purpose of protecting sport and commercial fishing on the Klamath by declaring it a fish preserve and prohibiting the erection of any dam in the stream. The measure is being opposed by the Eureka Chamber of Commerce on the ground that development of the vast power resources of the river is necessary to prosperity of Northwestern California and that fishing will not be injured. Col. Kelly made a personal inspection of the Klamath and the Trinity rivers.

"The proposed dam sites on the Klamath," he said, "are the only places in the United States where cheap power in large quantities is available so close to tidewater, making possible the use of electric power for metallurgical purposes. The plan calls for huge smelters at Trinidad, where a deep water, semi-protected harbor exists. The river has a potential capacity of 500,000 horsepower, of which 100,000 horsepower could be used by the present applicants. Preliminary permits have been issued for development of this power only on the condition that means shall be devised for protecting present conditions of fish migration and fish culture.

In touching upon the fishing situation, he declared steelhead rising on the upper Klamath river is better now above the California-Oregon Power Company's 100 foot dam at Copco than it is below. A similar condition would fit the Klamath, he said.

VERY BOOK FOR HIM

The man entered the store and looked around with rather a puzzled maner.

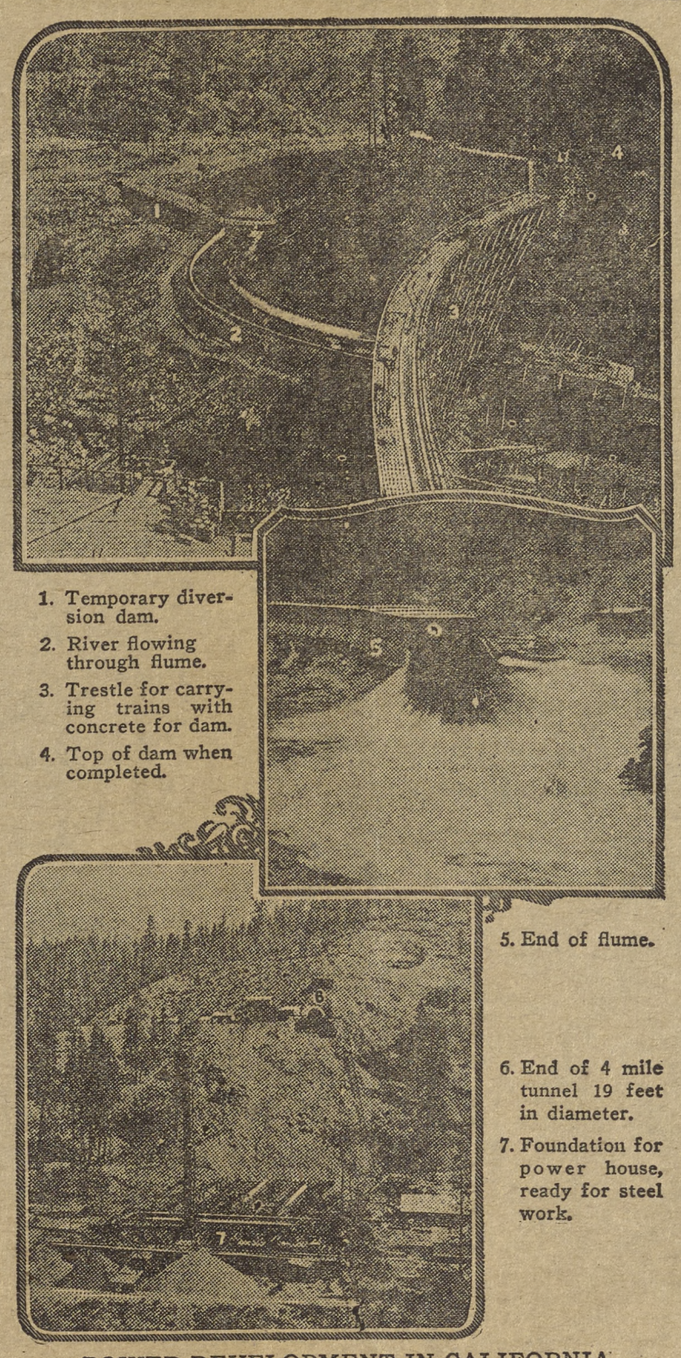
"Is there something you wish?" a clerk asked

"Well, er, yes," the man replied. "I am, that is, I would like to get a book suitable for a man about to get married."

"Yes sir," the clerk answered. Oh, here, Mr. Buford, show this gentleman some of our large size pocketbooks!"

Hamlet: "These darn raisins hurt my teeth."

Ophelia: "Must be the iron in them."



1. Temporary diversion dam.
2. River flowing through flume.
3. Trestle for carrying trains with concrete for dam.
4. Top of dam when completed.
5. End of flume.
6. End of 4 mile tunnel 19 feet in diameter.
7. Foundation for power house, ready for steel work.

POWER DEVELOPMENT IN CALIFORNIA

Views, showing progress on the Pacific Gas and Electric Company's Pit River Power Development, Shasta County. 1600 men are now employed on the project. This 108,000 horsepower plant will be completed and put in operation July, 1925.

EVER INCREASING DEMAND FOR ELECTRICAL ENERGY IN STATE

"California leads the world in the per capita consumption of electric energy according to the latest statistics compiled. There are 916 Kilowatt hours consumed per year by each person in the State. These figures are based on the kilowatt hour sales for 1923, and the population as estimated by the United States Bureau of Census.

Other interesting facts regarding California are that the State's hydro-electric output was 15 per cent more than New York's and 21 per cent of the total hydro electric output of the United States California alone produces practically the same percentage of the total hydro-electric output of U. S., as do the great industrial states of New York, Pennsylvania, and New Jersey, combined.

California ranks first in the United States in the production of electricity by water power and third in total production.

Approximately 94 per cent of the families are supplied with electrical energy.

California also leads in the electrification of rural territory."

To meet the ever increasing demand for electric energy, the Pacific Gas and Electric Company is increasing its Spaulding Drum Development and the Pit river projects. The big Pit job is progressing rapidly. 1600 men are now working at the different major operations of the development. The temporary diversion dam has been completed and the course of the river changed so that it now runs through a big concrete flume. A trestle has been built across the river and trains are operated over it, pouring concrete into the forms for the dam, which will be 125 feet high. The top of this dam will form a part of the new highway into Burney Park, which will border on the new lake formed by the water being backed up from the dam. This lake will be ten miles long and a mile wide in some places. The 19 foot tunnel which will be 20,000 feet in length has been completed for a distance of over 17,000 feet.

Food and supplies are stored on this interesting job and work will be continued throughout the late winter months.

WASHINGTON UNION HIGH SCHOOL TALK

The following notes and comments relative to the goings-on of our high school students, are taken from the columns of "The Hatchet," the sprightly little school journal issued by the Washington Union 'Hi."

This year the Girls' League has taken into its hands many undertakings and expects to be a greater success than it has been before. The League hopes that it will have the whole school behind it, now that we have a new building, and receive as much support as possible. Thus may the organization be able to accomplish a great deal more in making our school even better than it is.

The girls have helped the boys all they could during the football season and expect to receive support in return. Are the girls going to get it?

The League is working for the good of the school and therefore let's all get in and help it to better Washington High in every way we possibly can.

Have you heard of the Junior-Senior Dramatic Club? No? Then read this:

If the members learn enough about acting before Christmas to give a program, we know that we will have a treat.

It is planned to give two or three good public performances during the year, the proceeds to go toward purchasing the stage equipment for the auditorium.

There will be enough work to do on each production to keep all of the members busy, even though they may not all be able to take part in the program. It is hoped, however, that the cast of the plays can be selected in such a way that each member of the club will have an opportunity to take at least one stage part during the year.

The purpose of the club is not only to make money for the needed stage equipment but to give the members a real knowledge of good plays and how to produce them.

The club is looking forward to much pleasure as well, for what is more fun than taking part in a good play?

In making its selection of rings and pins the Senior Class has adopted a seal. It is hoped that this selection will establish a precedent for all the future graduating classes of Washington Union High.

Who knows? Mayhap a tradition will pass down thru' the classes to come, in which the names of the Seniors of '25 will be forever glorified.

The order has been placed with the T. V. Allen Company, whose guarantee is known to many high schools throughout the state.

All the class is looking forward with great expectancy to the delivery of the consignment.

Have you heard about our Carnival? I suppose you know something about it but not all that we want you to hear. We think it is going to be great fun. Imagine the great big auditorium of Washington High School filled with numerous concessions and crowded with people who are all having a glorious time! Are we all going to take part in making it a great success? I'll say we are.

Let's all start right in advertising it so that all the people of Washington Township will give us their support. Remember, the outside world will judge by our actions how interested we are in having new improvements in our school; so let's show that we are filled with enthusiasm and make them want to help us.

Come on everybody. Let's get agoing. It is time to start the new Washingtonian and we can't publish a new book with an old debt before us.

For all the people who haven't a 1924 Washingtonian or those who know where they can sell some a great offer has been made. You can get a 1924 book along with the one from the year before for the regular price, one dollar.

The Seniors have started work on the new book. First they elected a good set of officers:

Business Manaer ..... Eugene Silva
Editor ..... Katherine Overacker

Surely they are to be congratulated on their choice.

Now that we have our officers, we need pages and pages of good material. With efficient officers, plenty of material, and co-operation, why can't we put out the best Washingtonian yet?

The Deserted Beach

Crowds of laughing, joy-seeking people hastened to and fro, and disappeared among the lights that gleamed here and there along the beach of the little summer rendezvous. Among the few who remained on the beach was a tall, strongly-built man, watching the sun as it slowly sank into the horizon, change the sky into myriads of glorious colors which were reflected on the sea.

At first glance the passerby would have seen a plain featured, simply-dressed man of perhaps some thirty-five to forty years of age. But the keen observer would have detected in the firmly shaped mouth, expressing purpose, a certain tenderness with a touch of humor. In the dark, shrewd eyes when they smiled, a twinkle; in the low brow, an alert, highly developed intellect. It could be seen that the finely shaped hands were not given to much idling, and that about the whole person was a certain nobleness. Genuine pleasure kindled the pale sincere countenance at the sight it beheld.

In those crowds hurrying by some pitied the plain simply dressed man standing there on the deserted beach. They could not know that they were in turn pitied by him for their blindness.

The plain simply dressed man continued to gaze out across the sea at the sunset in all its glory.

Something About A Trip

The road we were traveling was altogether too rough for anyone to sleep comfortably. Of course, I don't think I really wanted to sleep but I made out I did. The shadows of the fir trees were always changing and the moon was shedding a silver light on the treetops at the bottom of the canyons. The mysterious blackness of shaded spots held my attention as I tried to picture night prowlers of the forest.

After a great deal of snake-like twisting the summit was reached. I held my breath at the beauty of the panorama that was stretched out before me. We could see for miles over rolling mountains. The rays of the moon and the night mists formed a veil which added to the enchantment of the scene. To the left and almost directly ahead there was a bright reddish glow that looked like a halo.

Going down the grade we lost sight of this mirror-like reflection, and, in fact, I had forgotten all about it, when, very unexpectedly, as we rounded a turn, a mountain top of burning sentinels met our gaze. Silence was everywhere as we were not close enough to hear the crackling of the burning giants. It was a most beautiful and impressive sight. The brilliantly burning skeletons of trees were silhoutted against the blackness of the night sky. The greater number of trees were standing masses of red glowing coals. They looked like unvictorious monarchs too proud to bow as they met their fate.

Our road wound on down the mountain side and soon this spector of a fallen kingdom was lost to sight but not to my memory.

ALVARADO SCHOOL NEWS

EDITH MELLO, School Editor

The Alvarado baseball team was defeated by San Lorenzo with a score of 5 to 6 on Friday, October 24, at the Grammar School grounds. The umpires were: Jesse Jacinto and Johnnie Jones. The players for San Lorenzo had a high school boy from Hayward who played for them. Alvarado had Edward Vargas and Manuel Gularte assisting. Phillips pitched the game for Alvarado. He fanned out eleven men. The game was lost for Alvarado by two errors, one being made by Joe Lemos and the other by Toshi Sato.

* * *

Father Casey, who has been ill for several months has recovered and will be in Alvarado next Sunday. He will also attend the Bazaar held at Newark on November 7th and 8th.

* * *

Lewis Maylone , of Fairplay, a town in the mountains, was a visitor of the Hizers recently. He was accompanied by two nieces, grammar school girls, who are having an enjoyable time with Minnie Hizer of of the 8th grade at Alvarado.

Mamie Vieria, a graduate from 1924 8th grade class, and her sister Marion visited the school last Monday. The girls are from the Sacramento valley.

The teachers of the Niles school are entertaining the teachers of the township on Thursday evening at a Hallowe'en party.

Miss Adeline Rathbun of the Niles Grammar school gave a Hallowe'en party on Friday night. There were twenty-six guests present. They had lots of fun playing many games and dancing, after which refreshments were served. The party lasted until ten o'clock.

Everyone had a good time and all were sorry to leave.

Miss Bunker, Miss Keller and Mrs. Wilson attended the Orpheum Saturday afternoon.

* * *

The baseball game with Decoto has been postponed on account of the rain.

* * *

Mrs. Bramhall, the health nurse visited this school Wednesday. The enrollment of our school is 318, the largest it has ever been this time of the year.

The Student Body of the Niles Grammar School will meet Friday, Oct. 31. The important part of the meeting is to elect a fire-chief. They will then appoint firemen and when the fire gong is sounded they will have a certain place to go and stand. We are going to invite Fire Chief Rathbun down and we are going to have a fire which he will witness for us.

All the children of this school were weighed and measured this week.

AIN'T IT THE TRUTH?

There are some men who can write a few words on a piece of paper and make it worth a million dollars.

THAT's CAPITAL.

The United States can take an ounce and a quarter of gold and make it worth $20.

THAT'S MONEY.

A mechanic can take material worth $5 and make it into watch springs worth one thousand dollars.

THAT'S SKILL.

There is a man in Paris who can take a fifty cent piece of canvas, paint a picture on it and make it worth $1000.

THAT'S ART.

Longfellow could take a worthless piece of paper, write a poem on it, and make it worth $65,000.

THAT'S GENIUS.

The author of this could write a check for $1000, but it would not be worth a cent.

THAT'S TOUGH.

A citizen who has not subscribed to the Township Register and says he doesn't need this peppy, up-and-coming newspaper to keep him informed on what's doing in this great and growing Township of ours—

THAT'S PLAIN FOOLISHNESS.

ACTIVITIES OF SCOUTS

Last Saturday 15 Scouts hiked to Brightside Park, up the canyon, for an all-day outing.

Earl Poore and Ramon Barnum attended the District Court of Honor in Hayward Tuesday evening. Ramon was awarded the Second Class Badge.

At the regular meeting of the Boy Scouts the following are to be given the Tenderfoot badge:

Earl Poore, Jack Cahill, Everett Valenzuela, and Raymond Crane.

Judge Harder of Hayward will be present on this evening to appeal to them for Scouting Ideals.

The parents and friends of the scuts are cordially invited to visit the troop on this occasion. The boys say "Let's have the best troop in Washington Township."

Watch for "Daffyland."

ARE YOU A FRIEND OF THE BOY SCOUTS

A committee from the Chamber of Commerce is out to raise $200 for the Boy Scouts of America.

This committee is busy. Chairman McPherson asks, "Are you a friend of the Boy Scouts? If so, dig up!"

That's plain, isn't it?

It is no easy task to raise cash. The politicians have been after cash of late BUT if you will help the Boy Scouts, go to the phone and call Mr. McPherson, Niles 10, and tell him how much you'll give.

Freddie: "What's the matter? Can't you skate?"

Eddie: "Don't know yet; I can't stand up long enough to find out."

Watch for "Daffyland."

"Stop, will ye, Murphy?" cried Pat as he was being let down into a well that needed repairs. "Oi want to come up again!"

"What for?" asked Murphy.

"Never yoi moind," replied Pat; then, when he found himself still being let down, he shouted: "If ye don't stop oi'll cut the rope!"

HARRY L. DAVIS HAULS RAILROAD INTO COURT

The Western Pacific Railway, which is taken to include every official and employee of the corporation, was this week summoned to court in Oakland on complaint of Harry L. Davis, candidate for State Senator from this district, who alleges that T. E. Coyle, the company's superintendent, attempted to coerce him into stopping his campaign for the office.

Davis says Coyle wrote him a letter threatening to discharge him if he continued to run for the office, and that this is a violation of the statute of 1915. Inasmuch as it appeared impracticable to summon all the officials and employees of the company, Prosecuting Attorney F. Donahue and Judge Hennessey decided to call in Coyle and hear the case November 7.

Kiwanis Boys' Band
(From The Cherry City News, San Leandro)

Every service club has pride in putting in at least one great achievement, and the local Kiwanis Club has taken very just pride in the fact that it has sponsored the Kiwanis Boys' Band. The band is composed of about fifty fine young fellows from the public schools, who have been trained under the skillful baton of Charlie Way, a band leader of very unusual capacity. Way Has had a great deal of experience in handling the younger generation, and has literally done real wonders with our Boys' Band. The boys themselves have been provided with the finest of instruments, and natty uniforms, full of color, and when they all get together and the baton waves, the impression they make is that of professional organization.

There is no local event of importance which is complete without the Kiwanis Boys' Band, and this is true not only locally, but even in the affairs pulled off in Oakland and Alameda. The Kiwanis Boys' Band has been a star feature in some of the big Oakland parades, and has drawn the crowds, when professional organizations have failed to do so. They have been in demand at many functions and banquets at the Hotel Oakland, and on one occasion Idora Park was thrown open to them, and all the amusements of this spacious play ground offered to them in free hospitality.

And how the boys can play!

Others may have more skill, but these boys have skill enough and plenty of youthful vim and enthusiasm to add to it. Whatever festival it may be they are there to furnish the music that brings life, interest and sets the crowds a-jiggling.

"What kind of leather makes the best shoes?"

"Don't know, but banana peels make the best slippers."

OAKLAND TO HAVE SYMPHONY AND CHAMBER CONCERTS SOON

Ten musical events of more than usual interest are scheduled for Oakland during the next few months with the appearance of the San Francisco Symphony, Alfred Hertz, conductor, in seven concerts, and the San Francisco Chamber Music Society in three recitals.

Subscriptions for the combination of the chamber music and the symphony concerts in Oakland are being taken by Zanette W. Potter at the box office, Sherman Clay & Co., and judging from the demand lovers of good music welcome the opportunity of hearing both symphony and chamber music.

The first chamber music recital will be held Tuesday, November 11, at the Hotel Oakland at 8 o'clock. The symphonies will be held at the Oakland Municipal Auditorium Theatre.

Symphony dates are Dec. 11, Jan. 8, Jan. 22, Feb. 12, Feb. 26, March 12, and March 26. The chamber music dates are November 11, December 15 and January 13.

Four of the symphonic productions will be the so-called "popular" while the other three will be regular. Doctor Hertz has arranged an unusually splendid program for his East Bay appearance.

The Chamber Music Society has just returned from a successful tour of the northwest where they made a tremendous impression. The artists are Louis Persinger, first violin and director; Louis Ford, second violin; Nathan Firestone, viola; Walter Ferner, violincello and Elias Hecht, flutist and founder of the society.

Dohnanyi's Quartet in D major, Op 15, for strings; Mozart's quartet in D major for flute and strings; Sschaikowski, Borodin and Glazounow are included in the opening recital.

And the opening symphony concert program follows: Beethoven's Overture, Lenore No. 3; Schubert's Unfinished Symphony; Lizst's Mephisto Waltzes and Taylor's famous suite "Thru the Looking Glass."

Father: "But my dear, that fellow Henry earns only $15 a week or so; you could NEVER live on that."

Daughter: "Yes, Daddy, but a week passes SO quickly when you're fond of anyone."

"So you confess that this unfortunate young Freshman was carried to the pond and drenched? Now, young man, what part did you take in this disgraceful affair?"

"The right leg, sir," answered the Sophomore meekly.

$500 REWARD

There have been rumors which I honestly believe are unauthorized, that both Mr. Carter and Mr. Davie, candidates for Congress, are in sympathy with and supporting the LaFollette campaign. To the person who will furnish me either written or verbal proof of this support, I will give a cash prize of $500.00. This offer is in the interest of electing a Congressman who will stand by LaFollette.

ODE TO A BOX CAR

How I loved thee, dear old box car,
Thou wert stronger than an ox car;
How I used to swing upon thee,
And imagine riding on thee;
O, the simple, careless joy,
When I was a little boy!

Mostly red, but sometimes yellow,
Your dimensions gave a fellow
Such a thrill to ride inside thee,
Mattered not what might betide thee,
Just to be carried off so far
By that sturdy old box car!

CHINA AND HER TROUBLES

China is not the only country which would be happier if its politicians and soldiers were loaded onto a barge with a cargo of burning matches and TNT, but, being older, it has had a better demonstration of the truth. Now, with three useless wars inflicting suffering on millions of innocent peasants all over the country, the point is being grievously labored.

Whether Wu Pei-fu or Chang Tso-lin wins in the main conflict in the North, the country will be little better off. Domination by one general will be exchanged for domination by another. In either case China is weakened by resistance to foreign imperialism, which is the biggest issue before the Chinese nation. Fortunately, no pretext has yet been given for foreign intervention, despite the proximity of retreating bands of troops to the foreign concessions in Shanghait and Canton.

Foreign property has been unmolested. Meanwhile, our own Department of State, which has latterly been free with moral preachments to China on the subject of law and order, is happily silent. Election campaigns have their uses. With Mr. Secretary Hughes crediting peace in the Pacific to Republican achievement it would be embarrasing if American marines were to start shooting up Chinese towns. For the next few weeks Mr. Hughes will probably turn Nelson's blind eye on Chinese "chaos."—The Nation.

YOUR SHARE

The most efficient way to do your share of community development is to co-operate through your membership at least in the improvement and civic clubs of the community. They are composed of people who, having a natural pride in their home town, have banded themselves together in a common effort to aid in its progress and its development. The officers and committees of these organizations are composed of public spirited citizens who are willing to give of their time as well as their substance for the good of the community.

It is the duty and privilege of all good citizens to support these organizations and in this connection we would refer specifically to the Chamber of Commerce and its popular and hilarious Tuesday luncheon club. Both organizations properly supported can and will do much for the improvement of the city they serve.

As this year is drawing to a close membership campaigns are being considered to support and make possible interesting and useful programs for 1925. It is possible for everyone to aid in this work and a general and wholehearted response will work wonders in every phase of city development.

Some people claim the world is making progress in the direction of better things. Let us see. Last year we had "Yes, we have no bananas," and this year we have, "It ain't goin' to rain no more."

Dawes characterized the Davis-Bryan ticket as just a "straddle." Davis promptly retorted by giving Coolidge and Dawes a chance to quit trying to straddle on the klan issue. Apparently the campaign is going to get "good."

This Too Shall Pass Away

A mighty monarch in the days of old,
Made offer of high honor, wealth and gold,
To one who should produce in form concise,
A motto for his guidance, terse yet wise—
A precept, soothing in his hours forlorn,
Yet one that in his prosperous days would warn.
Many the maxims sent the king, men say,
The one he chose: "This too shall pass away."
Oh, jewel sentence from the mine of truth!
What riches it contains for age or youth.
No stately epic, measured and sublime,
So comforts, or so counsels, for all time.
As these few words. Go write them on your heart
And make them of your daily life a part.
Has some misfortune fallen to your lot?
This too will pass away—absorb the thought.
And wait; your waiting will not be in vain,
Time gilds with gold the iron links of pain.
The dark today leads into light tomorrow;
There is no endless joy, no endelss sorrow.
Shall pass away: Fame, glory, place and power,
They are but little baubles of the hour.
Flung by the ruthless years down in the dust,
Take warning and be worthy of God's trust.
Use well your powress while it lasts; leave bloom,
Not blight, to mark your footprints to the tomb
The truest greatness lies in being kind,
The truest wisdom in a happy mind.
He who desponds, his Maker's judgment mocks!
The gloomy Christian is a paradox.
Only the sunny soul respects its God.
Since life is short we need to make it broad;
Since life is brief we need to make it bright.
Then keep the old king's motto well in sight,
And let its meaning permeate each day.
Whatever comes: This too shall pass away.

—Ella Wheeler Wilcox.

Lubrication Questions Answered by

ASSOCIATED OIL COMPANY
Staff of Automotive Engineers

Question: What is the correct method of lubricating springs.

Answer: Many methods have been offered as to the correct manner in which to lubricate spring leaves. Most of these have been offered principally on the basis of convenient application rather than correct lubrication. There is only one way to lubricate springs properly. The car should be jacked up lifting pressure being brought to bear on the body of the car, not on the axle. In this manner the spring leaves will be slightly separated. The leaves should then be pried apart with a cold chisel or similar tool, and the lubricant applied to the leaves. Ordinary cup grease is suitable for this purpose, though the very best results will be obtained from the use of an emulsitying fiber grease. Periodical inspection of springs will be well repaid, as the car will ride very much better.

Question: Explain why the correct grade of motor oil is important to proper lubrication.

Answer: The large oil companies have spent a great deal of money investigating the conditions surrounding the selection of the correct grade of motor oil for use in automobile engines. The fact to be remembered is that all lubricating oils change their viscosity, or body, as the oil becomes warm. This condition will naturally result from use in any auto engine. It is therefore necessary, through research and by actual test to determine the average temperature at which oil in a particular make of motor will operate. This is determined by the study of the design of the motor, and particular attention to such features as exopsed oil lines, type of lubricater used, speed of the engine, clearances, whether lubrication is accomplished by force feed methods, splash, or a combination of both.

All these features have to be taken into consideration in the selection of the correct grade of oil for use in any engine. If there should be any doubt in your mind as to just what is the correct grade to be used in your motor, reference to the lubricating chart of any large oil company will give you the correct recommendations.

Question: What is the best lubricant for universal joints?

Answer: The action or movement which takes place within the case of the universal joint is really small, though what movement there is is very important. The actual lubrication of the working parts is relatively simple, the real problem being to retain the lubricant in the case. If the case is well constructed and leak proof, ordinary cup grease will serve.

INVISIBLE GOVERNMENT

(From The Cherry City News)

In almost every line of human endeavor leadership is essenial to progress or even movement. Without leaders the mass ceases to move—it becomes stagnant and dies. There are two kinds of leaders—or rather there are those who lead and those who drive. The leader takes his place because of the confidence of the people; because they trust his intelligence and his good faith. The driver forces himself into his position of control, and by use of fear or manipulation operates the machinery of management.

When we speak of "invisible government" we mean those drivers who possess neither the confidence nor the good-will of the mass, but who, from their more or less secluded position, pull the wires that operate the machine. In the American government there is no room for such drivers. Whenever they take control Americanism is subordinated to a species of more or less complete despotism.

Such men operate through a multitude of agencies. Sometimes they hide behind an accumulated horde of money, either their own or that of some organization which they control, and, by the power of finance, sway those who are slaves to wealth. Others work through comparatively small but powerful organizations whose ostensible leaders they control and whose actions they influence for their own aggrandisement. If a man is upright, just and courageous, he is, for that reason alone, the subject of their attack.

Whenever newspapers conspire to print, with great display, every lie which reflects discredit upon a citizen, and refuses to print the truth that does him justice; whenever the ostensible leaders in the community unite to assassinate his reputation by slanders whispered behind his back; then you may know that the man against whom these lies, these insinuations, are directed has stood for justice and Americanism, and has been marked for destruction by the agencies of "invisible government."

Jealous of their power, greedy for wealth, these drivers work shrewdly and persistently to increase the retinue of those who yield them obeisance and destroy those whose hearts still urge them to patriotic endeavor. Such men stand a sinister menace to all that is noble in human nature. A man who does not dare to work in the open always has unclean work to do. Government which is "invisible" is beyond the reach of the people, and, by that token alone, is a threat to democracy. The most necessary work of any organization, social, fraternal or political, is to rid itself of such characters. Otherwise the profession it makes of high principles and noble ideals is nothing more than hypocrisy and cant.

After he has driven a few years a motorist comes to know that any car is a good car, whatever is the matter with it, that keeps on going. Maybe the same test could be applied to men.

Every Person Benefited By This Achievement

NO power shortage in P. G. and E. territory despite the long drought; service provided for every new consumer; a twelve per cent increase in demand supplied; and all without any increase in rates;—that is the announcement made with justifiable pride by the P. G. and E.

For that result, so important to every industry and home, we thank our devoted and efficient organization, comprising 11,600 employes, always on their toes, guided by initiative and foresight, and ambitious to maintain the unfailing standards of Pacific Service.

But the result could hardly have been achieved without the spirit of co-operation among the power companies of California who, for the sake of the public service, fed one another from time to time with surplus power, so that not a kilowatt of current went to waste.

An important factor was the diversity of demand in the wide territory served by the Pacific Gas and Electric Company, one of the largest hydro-electric companies in the United States, drawing power from numerous sources. No single plant, serving one community, could have met the situation.

A true servant of the public—the P. G. and E., whose 30,000 owners are nearly all Californians.

SOME REFLECTIONS ON THE CAMPAIGN

By ETHEL BROOKE SANFORD
WRITTEN FOR TOWNSHIP REGISTER

Have you noticed that during the last few weeks the press has spent considerable time and space assuring us in one paragraph that the election will be a LANDSLIDE FOR COOLIDGE and in the next urging us to vote for Coolidge to SAVE THE COUNTRY from the menace of LaFollette, the terrible "red"? If these papers are so sure of the landslide, why spend so much money and make so much fuss to save us from something that isn't going to happen?

In a manner sometimes open and sometimes covert it is insinuated that only the election of Coolidge will save our good times or assure good times for the future. We have heard this same sort of thing each election time for the last many, many years, and the fact of the matter is that during all this time certain people have enjoyed good times and to certain others so-called prosperity has only been a bitter joke. To thousands of small merchants, who are almost bankrupt; to a half million farmers who have lost their farms or are bankrupt; to other hundreds of thousands for whom life is nothing but a hopeless grind; to a million unemployed; to the great multitude of overworked and underpaid unskilled laborers, both men and women, the talk of prosperity is a bitter joke indeed.

Some people are beginning to get thoroughly tired of having the hard times threat swung over their heads, hence the strength of the LaFollette movement, and the scare in the other camp which has been responsible for such a wealth of propaganda which has DEGENERATED into something below the understanding of honest people.

"Our Republic or Sovietism? That's the Real Issue Between Calvin Coolidge and His Opponent," is one of the statements made in the present campaign to throw a scare into those who are too ignorant or too lazy to think for themselves.

As the fight is against LaFollette, and as Coolidge is represented as being "100 per cent American", the INFERENCE is that LaFOLLETTE IS A REPRESENTATIVE OF SOVIETISM and that Sovietism is something terrible that should be avoided as we would avoid the plague.

We can only conclude that such propaganda is the result of ignorance or a direct attempt to stampede and frighten uninformed voters into voting for Coolidge.

The issue, whatever it may be, has nothing to do with "Sovietism" and no one knows that better than the makers of this sort of propaganda.

WHY NOT BE HONEST, FAIR AND DECENT?

Don't get excited and imagine we are getting ready to "destroy the constitution," and turn the republic upside down before Christmas. We can't even be begged or bought to vote for LaFollette, BUT WE DO GET TIRED OF THIS "STOP THIEF" BUSINESS WHICH IS USED BY ALL PEDDLERS OF POLITICS TO ATTRACT THE ATTENTION OF THE PEOPLE AWAY FROM THEIR REAL TROUBLES.

LaFollette represents a type of mind which would have been appropriate fifty years ago; but which is totally inadequate to cope with the modern problems of the twentieth century; nevertheless if he can muster a vote which scares both old parties stiff and show the people at large that it is possible to vote sometimes otherwise than their grandfathers did, his effort will not be entirely WITHOUT SOME excuse for its existence.

The charge has been made that he is in the pay of Russia (an insinuation that Russia is interested in or approves what he stands for or is doing). This can have no other purpose than to mislead the voter. Russia at least has her face to the future and is making new paths for her feet in every department of life, whether they suit our western civliization and standards or not; WHILE LAFOLLETTE is thinking and dreaming, as most OLD MEN DO, WITH HIS FACE TO THE PAST and HIS FEET ROOTED AND GROUNDED IN THE PROGRESSIVEISM of the 19th CENTURY. If Russia should hear that our politicians are spreading the story that she is interested in the things which LaFollette is doing and saying and standing for, she might laugh herself to death. The uproarious fun generated by the reaction to such a lie might accomplish what all the armies of the allies failed to accomplish in four years.

Also it is charged that the same terrible "red" LaFollette would curtail the powers of the supreme court, all of which, according to the tellers of this tale, would leave us without a constitution and place us at the mercy of the terrible lawmakers which we have chosen. Wow! It would be terrible if we had a court which couldn't declare our child labor laws and other such laws unconstitutional, and do other such tricks to keep us safe and sane.

FACT is our constitution has already stood the shock of being amended some nineteen times and if amending it nineteen more times will give the people what they want, why not?

If we cannot improve upon it after all these years, then indeed we are progressing backwards.

There was a time when the tallow candle was the best light we had and the ox team our surest method of delivery, but we put them in the museum when electricity came along to take their place, and nobody is crying about it. If the same attitude had been taken toward all changes that has been taken toward the constitution we would still be wearing a breechclout and chasing the woolly rhinoceros.

Why this propaganda? Why not let people vote as they please? If we haven't sense enough to know what is good for us, we ought to get all that's coming to ignorant voters, just as we have been doing and getting, lo these many years.

If people who work on the farms and in the factories, or who have no job at all, want to vote for corporation lawyers, finance experts, stock brokers, or professional politicians to serve them as representatives, senators, president or vice-president, why not permit them to do so? And if they want to try a change, real or imaginary, by electing LaFollette, why not permit them to do so? It is only through experience that we learn anything.

We had our democratic president who got into office on a promise of keeping us out of war and our republican regime with its Teapot Dome party and other interesting social affairs. WHY NOT LET LaFOLLETTE STAGE HIS PLAY IF THE PEOPLE VOTE FOR IT? Why not let us run the WHOLE GAMUT of platitudes and empty promises, so that perchance we might learn something from the experience? Or if any business man, banker, corporation head, stock broker or corporation lawyer wishes to vote for a farmer or a union man for president (don't hold your breath until they do), why not let him do so?

The ignorant vote is the curse of the nation. The bought vote is the crime.

Parties stand for certain things. The things for which they stand are good for somebody. The duty of each voter is to become a student so that he will know just what each party stands for, whether it keeps its pledges and whether the things for which the party stands will HARM or HELP him.

When our votes are intelligent votes, when no vote can be bought, then may we look forward to the elimination of special privilege, graft and the many injustices to which they give rise.

One thing is quite certain, and that is that a surprise is in store in the strength of the LaFollette vote, such as none of us would have dreamed a few months ago. There are many reasons advanced for this, most of them perhaps erroneous. But the reason has little to do with whether Coolidge is or is not 100 per cent anything, or because LaFollette is or is not "red," neither does it have so very much to do with the tariff or the supreme court or the constitution. The thing is a mighty revolt, mostly unanalyzed, perhaps, but a revolt, nevertheless, against the misery and poverty and uncertainty on the one hand, and the humbug and graft and special privilege on the other; and last, but not least, it is, in some localities especially, a sweeping protest against war. To no other proposal or sentiment do his audiences respond so enthusiastically as they do to the idea of outlawing war.

And this is not the end. It is the beginning, not only in the United States, but in all so-called civilized countries, even in far-off Egypt and India. Whether we like it or not, this movement is going to ferment and grow until old parties, laws, customs and institutions give way to new parties, laws, customs, and institutions, more in harmony with new new conditions and new times.

Whether right or wrong, it is coming, and we might as well adjust ourselves to it.

Think on these things, my friends. It is the hour of the common people, and they are now beginning to become articulate. The sleeping giant is awakening, and is stretching his limbs, taking measure of his strength, and planning to carve a New Day for himself. Woe to him who stands in the way.

AT THE THEATRE

Pretty soon you may see "Sinners in Heaven" at the Niles Theater, but ere that time, in fact Saturday night, you may see "Life's Greatest Game," with Johnnie Walker in an all star cast. Lovers of the national game of baseball should all see this picture.

Sunday Pola Negri will be seen in "Lily of the Dust," a Paramount picture.

COGGINS OFFERS CASH REWARD FOR EVIDENCE

While Davie is centering his shot on Carter, and Carter on Davie, H. L. Coggins, also on the ballot for Congress, is hot on the trail of both of them. Coggins campaigners were working in Niles today, and liberal publicity is being given to a reward offered of $500 cash to the person who can offer proof of an alleged rumor that either Davie or Carter are backing the candidacy of LaFollette and Wheeler.

Coggins is supporting the progressive ticket and seeks election to Congress in order to back up the independent progressive movement.

Coggins is a well known Oakland business man, operating an art goods establishment at Fourteenth and Broadway. He has been a candidate for Mayor of Berkeley, where he resides.

THE MOVING FINGER

State will go to the same hot place if you don't vote for it. So on down through the whole list.

* * *

Then we find BUSHELS of propaganda for candidates whose treasury is busted and we are expected to GIVE them the space when we have advertising space for SALE, and we simply can't get up any personal enthusiasm on who is elected and who is not. We have been "talking back" to some of these fellows today and one of them said we sounded like a Bolshevik.

* * *

When each candidate for office calls his opponent a liar and a thief, we feel justified in thinking there may be an element of truth in the statements of the WHOLE BUNCH of them.

* * *

Yes, we are glad the campaign is drawing to a close and now that we have blown off a little steam we will don our little koveralls and retire to the press room of this family newspaper and do a little dirty work of our own, and next Tuesday we'll go with the Chamber of Commerce boys and take lunch with the Lady Maccabees.

Civilization Doomed

BUT MILLIONS NOW LIVING WILL NEVER DIE

AFTER centuries of laborious effort to better conditions, man's civilization is nearing complete collapse. Selfishness has gone to seed, and the harvest of destruction has begun.

WAR has bankrupted Europe and demoralized America; yet nations go feverishly on, preparing for more war.

CORRUPTION and official lawlessness are brazenly manifested in all nations.

DISASTER stalks abroad, and all nations are rushing madly to the greatest time of trouble the world has ever known.

THE WORLD'S darkest hour is just before its greatest blessing. Hope for the people lies in the Kingdom of God, now at hand.

NILES WOMAN AMONG DIRECTORS OF NEW GIRLS' ORGANIZATION

At a citizens' mass meeting held in the Auditorium of the Y. W. C. A. building recently, an important new association was put in the field to be known as the Eastbay Girls' Service Association, the first active enterprise of which will be to establish a girls' residence club. This club is to be operated in co-operation with the various social agencies of the community that have to do with girls' affairs and will be prepared to do a varied work, including emergency service to girls who are without proper home influences.

The meeting was presided over by Hugh P. Evans, president of the Public Welfare League, which has sponsored this movement from the start. Mrs. Helen S. Artieda acted as temporary secretary, and the report of the committee on organization and nominations, consisting of the following, was read by Mrs. H. G. Hill, chairman: Mrs. H. G. Hill of Oakland, chairman; Mrs. A. O. Gott of Alameda, Mrs. B. H. Haas of Oakland, Mrs. C. H. Loughrey of Alameda, Mrs. J. W. Sinclair of Berkeley, and Mrs. E. G. Crosby of Oakland.

The plan of organization presented by the committee was unanimously adopted. It calls for a Board of Directors of 17 members and an Advisory Council of 20. The Board of Directors will secure a site for the proposed Eastbay Girls Service Club and will install therein a staff headed by a social worker of experience, who will arrange night and day service to meet emergencies which arose in the lives of girls.

By the plan of organization adopted the Board of Directors are as follows:

Mrs. F. V. Vollmer of Oakland, Mrs. C. W. Whitney of Berkeley, Mrs. Jas. R. Whipple of Niles, Mr. Fred R. Johnson of Oakland, Mrs. S. J. Ackerman of Alameda, Miss Tete Todd of Berkeley, Mr. Ralph C. Yager of Oakland, Mrs. J. G. Kearney of Alameda, Mrs. F. L. Burkhalter of Oakland, Mrs. Martin E. Marks of Oakland, Mrs. A. Fourchy of Alameda, Mrs. Milton Newmark of Berkeley, Dr. R. F. Robie of Oakland, Mrs. Mary E. Haswell of Oakland, Mr. Joseph J. Rosborough of Oakland, and Dr. Alice Luce of Milsl College. tI will devolve upon Mrs. Vollmer, acting as temporary chairman, to call the group together to complete their organization.

Those elected to serve on the Advisory Council are:

Judge E. C. Robinson of Oakland, Dr. Aurelia Reinhardt, Mrs. A. S. Lavenson, Mrs. Horatio Bonestell, Mrs. Bessie Wood Gustafson, Mrs. S. Haslett, Mrs. W. H. Marston, Mrs. Fred C. Harrison, Mrs. Russell Lowry, Mrs. Helen S. Artieda, Rev. Henry H. Shires, Mrs. Florence H. Hill, Mrs. G. W. McMaster, and Rev. R. C. Waddell.

Information concerning the activities of the new organization can be secured through Mrs. Vollmer or at the office of the Public Welfare League, 414 Thayer Building.

DR. A. M. DEEBO

CHIROPRACTOR

The basic principles of Chiropractic—the Better Way to Health.

(1) A vertebra becomes displaced.
(2) It presses on a spinal nerve.
(3) This pressure obstructs nerve impulses.
(4) Organs deprived of nerve supply ultimatebly become diseased.
(5) Adjustment of vertebra replaces it in its normal position.
(6) Pressure is then removed from nerve.
(7) Nerve impulses again flow to affected organs.
(8) Health is the result, instead of disease.
(9) Don't condemn but investigate.
(10) Delay is dangerous; act at once.

Drop in at The Register office and leave your name, phone number and address, and Dr. Deebo will call on you. Treatments in your own home. Consultation free. Don't hesitate to ask.

RAGSON TATTERS SAYS

Folks! There are three words, the sweetest words, in all of human speech, more sweet than all the songs of birds, or pages poets preach —This life may be a vale of tears, a sad and dreary thing, three words and trouble disappears, and birds begin to sing. Three words and all the roses bloom; the sun begins to shine; three words will dissipate the gloom, and water turns to wine. Three words will cheer the saddest days—"I love you?"—Wrong, by eck! It is another sweeter phrase—"Enclosed find check!"

NILES IS GROWING!

Of course Niles is growing. We recently got a new meat market, and now we have a bran new fish market. V. Fiume threw open the doors to the public on Wednesday of his new fish and vegetable market in the postoffice building.
